Young lives with his wife, Gladys at 161 G St They have three children, Howard Jr., 27, a student at San Jose State College, Mrs. Gladys Lewis of Vallejo, and Robert, 12, who lives at home. Young an accomplished pilot, said he took up flying shortly after World War II when many of the veterans were taking to the air on the GI bill. "I liked to fly and I still do. I've got a license and whenever I feel the urge to get upstairs I got over to Buchanan Field near Concord and rent an airplane," he added. "Close calls" Well about ten years ago we were cruising about the Bay Area and I decided it

Two Injured In Collision

A Vallejo woman and a Napa man were injured here late yesterday afternoon when their vehicles collided head-on at the intersection of Sonoma Blvd. and Idaho St. Treated at a Vallejo hospital where they were taken by a Solano ambulance were Mrs. Marjorie D. Booth 39 of 172 El Poco Pl. and Teddy Jo Morris 28 of 2291 Transcas Ave. Napa.

Police said Mrs. Booth was headed south and Morris north when the collision occurred. However, they have been unable to assign a cause for it as yet. Mrs. Booth suffered a possible arm fracture and cuts on both knees while Morris who was tossed out of his light truck suffered facial cuts.
