(Halley, as chairman of the Board's County, State and National Affairs Committee, is a member of the Mayor's legislative group.)

"Mark this," McCarty replied sharply. "The committee didn't recommend 'no action,' they recommended opposition. Of course it's our business."

Supervisor John J. Ferdon supported McCarty and then the motion to put the board on record in support of the bill was approved unanimously.

OTHER ACTIONS

In action on other legislative matters the board:

1—Sent back to the Mayor's committee for "clarification" the bill which would give the State Toll Bridge Authority the right to reimpose tolls on toll-free bridges in order to finance new bridges. The matter had come before the Board with a recommendation of opposition, but Halley could not explain why.

2—Referred to the Committee on County, State and National Affairs for study a Senate bill that would change the method of taxation on baled cotton to encourage the shipping of more baled cotton from California ports.

3—Voted to oppose a proposed constitutional amendment that would prohibit cities or counties from imposing an income tax.

4—Voted to support a bill that would appropriate $1,050,000 for development of the Ferry Building as a State Historical Monument.
