RE: Non-Construction Period
Exxon Chemicals Baytown
Contract No. RC-1142

Gentlemen:

The months of May, June, and July, 1977, will see non-construction activities at the Exxon Baytown jobsite. The disposition of personnel and facilities have been reviewed by Brown & Root. Certain items with corresponding costs will be ongoing and are listed in Table I. The Brown & Root proposal of personnel incurs certain other costs and these are listed in Table II. Table III lists the cost projection reflected from the Brown & Root proposal which follows:

1. Keep an accountant full time during this period. We propose Mr. Les Hoover fill this function. His duties will be:
 - A. Receive and pay all invoices.
 - B. Receive and file construction drawings for the future projects.
 - C. Handle all clerical matters that will be ongoing from the Line 4, Base Plant, and Additive Uniformity projects.
 - D. Take care of mail.
 - E. Prepare reports as required.
 - F. Receive, offload, store, and be accountable for new equipment and material.
2. Keep the Project Construction Manager on full time. His duties will be:
 - A. Work with engineering on new projects.
 1. Review engineering to determine drawing priorities for start of construction in August.
 2. Prepare shutdown schedule for April, 1978 on both projects.
 3. Assist in preparing construction schedule.
 4. Review detail engineering to determine who to do, Brown & Root or vendor.
 5. Assist engineering wherever possible.

EXX 010950

Letter to Mr. F. P. Jones

- B. Review recast of Exxon cost estimate to determine completeness and magnitude.
- C. Participate in periodic project status reviews.
- D. Receive, offload, and store new equipment and material.
- E. Assist accountant as required.
- F. Perform construction manager's functions in area of invoices, handling of reports, running of construction office, etc.

In summary, both men proposed full time will be occupied and productive. The projected monthly costs are summarized as follows:

Ongoing	$ 2,474.00
Personnel Proposed	6,600.00
Total Per Month	$ 9,074.00

It is proposed that Line 4 carry the ongoing costs for May. A portion of the personnel cost for May and the total cost for June and July will be carried by Base Plant and Additive Uniformity projects.

I hope this proposal meets with your approval. If you have any questions concerning the above, please contact me.

Yours very truly,
