At 8:45 o'clock, Ketauver submitted to the questions of newspapermen at the Press and Union League Club. One newspaperman fired the 364 question at him. Did he think he would be nominated at the Chicago convention in August even though he trounced Stevenson in the Florida and California primaries? Ketauver won the primaries against others in 1952 but lost the nomination. The Senator replied: "I think the atmosphere is different this year on the part of those who will be running the convention. They know the people don't like dark horses. Former President Truman, for example, has said
