

A partner on the job

THE day's work is easy when Dutch Boy works with you. For paint made of this pure white-lead—the choice of painters everywhere—has unusual covering power and spreads easily under the brush.

Whether mixed with linseed oil for a gloss finish or with flattening oil for a flat finish, Dutch Boy white-lead makes a paint that combines good looks with long wear. It re-suits in a job that pleases the property-owner. It makes you proud of the work you do. It makes others regard you as a master craftsman.

If at any time in the course of your work you run into a particularly knotty paint problem, or desire information as to how to secure different finishes, blended effects, colors, etc., please feel perfectly free to call upon us for assistance. We are glad to be of help in this connection.
