Friends and colleagues,

After two great years with Sen. Inhofe, today is my last day in my current role. It's been an honor working for Sen. Inhofe and I am incredibly appreciative of all the opportunities he has given me. It's been a great privilege to work with such a wonderful team and so many great Oklahomans.

Luckily I'm not going too far. Starting on August 21, I will be joining the Senate Finance Committee as Deputy Press Secretary. Additionally, I will be starting law school at George Washington University.

My new Finance email will be live in a few weeks, but I can also be reached at [Personal Email/Ex. 6] or at [Personal Phone/Ex. 6]. Please keep in touch and I look forward to continuing to work with many of you all in my new role.

For Inhofe press matters, please contact Luke Holland or at 202-224-4721.

Best,

Nicole
