Senator Martin Heinrich

Representing New Mexico since 2013, Senator Heinrich serves on the Senate Committee on Energy and Natural Resources and the Subcommittee on National Parks. He also serves on the Senate Committee on Armed Services, the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, and the U.S. Congress Joint Economic Committee.

Senator Heinrich's numerous accomplishments to protect our public lands include his work to help create the Columbine-Hondo Wilderness area, expand public access to the Valles Caldera National Preserve, and establish the Manhattan Project National Historical Park. He also championed the creation of the Rio Grande del Norte National Monument and Organ Mountains-Desert Peaks National Monument.

His dedicated bipartisan efforts also help to connect families and kids to the great outdoors as demonstrated by his work as co-chair of the Senate Outdoor Recreation Caucus, sponsor of the Every Kid Outdoors Act and co-sponsor of the annual Kids to Parks Day Senate Resolution.

NATIONAL PARK TRUST

NPT's mission is preserving parks today; creating park stewards for tomorrow. In the 35 years since NPT was established, the non-profit organization has completed more than 60 land acquisition, restoration, and mitigation projects in 30 states, 1 U.S. Territory and Washington, D.C. including 48 National Park Service projects. In 2009, NPT launched its nationally recognized Buddy Bison Programs which currently support more than 200 Title I schools across the country. Since 2011, NPT has organized Kids to Parks Day, an annual national celebration of America's parks hosted on the third Saturday in May. For more details about NPT, visit www.parktrust.org.
