1 do. The lining had to sell.

2 Q You just threw out a date of 1985 --

3 A I'm saying --

4 Q It's true, is it not --

5 A -- in the eighties, someplace in the eighties.

6 Q Well, if you review Exhibit L, you were well aware
7 of that in 1981; correct?

8 A You have a better memory than I have because you
9 got the papers in front of you.

10 MR. TOWLE: I object to the question, I don't
11 know what the "that" was. And I think it needs to be more
12 precise than that.

13 A Okay, then it was '81.

14 MR. TOWLE: What was? I'm sorry, this is --
15 unless you guys are using a shorthand, we don't know what you
16 are talking about, we haven't got a copy of the document in 17 front of us, either.

18 MR. PURCELL: Sure, I will be happy to clarify
19 it.

20 MR. TOWLE: Thank you.

21 BY MR. PURCELL:

22 Q We were talking about a problem you had described
23 that was, I believe, you indicated well appreciated in the
