Dr. Gilbert, 51, an evangelist and anti-Communist crusader on radio and television, was shot to death in a motel room last May 31.

Marrs claimed he blacked out when a companion of Gilbert's pushed him in an effort to evict him from the motel room, and that he remembered nothing until he saw Gilbert dying from a bullet wound.

Marrs said he had intended to threaten Gilbert with exposure if the evangelist did not end relations with Marrs' wife, Martha Ann, 37.

Mrs. Marrs testified that Dr. Gilbert fathered her unborn child. She has been a patient in a Utah clinic for alcoholics.

The trial which began August 1, was the longest in San Bernardino county's history.
