Greg

I didn't understand this total at first, but upon review it makes sense.

This invoice covers the remainder of our original commitment of 55.6 K
for last year, plus half of our 34.9 K commitment
for this year.
(over) J.

I pointed out to Har
that it would have been nice to have that broken out on the invoice.

As required by statute, CMA has estimated that 16% of the 1994/95 Fiscal Year dues is allocable to lobbying and political expenditures to which Section 162(e) (1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, applies. Consequently, this portion of the above amount is not deductible as an ordinary and necessary business expense for federal income tax purposes.

We are now required by law to tell you that contributions, gifts or membership dues paid to CMA are not deductible as "charitable contributions" for Federal income tax purposes. This law does not affect the deductibility of these payments as a "business expense." ; however 162(e) (1) noted above does affect deductibility.

Commitment Form

- ☒ My company (Dow) commits $34,965 for the 1994-1995 vinyl chloride research and advocacy program as referenced in the November 15, 1994 letter to Dr. Jonathan Ramlow from Dr. Has Shah. I understand that this commitment is in addition to the $55,630 commitment my company has already made in the past several months. For the new commitment amount, $34,965, covered by this commitment form, please invoice me according to the box(es) checked below. The Panel is conducted under the policies and procedures in the CHEMSTAR Panel Guidelines, briefly noted on the reverse of this form.

- ☐ Please invoice me $ _____ in December 1994.
☒ Please invoice me $ 17,000 in January 1995.
☒ Please invoice me $ 17,965 in April 1995.
☐ Please invoice me $ _____ in July 1995.

- ☐ While appreciating the opportunity, my company declines to participate.

CMA has estimated that 16% of the total CMA 1994/95 fiscal year "dues and similar income", which includes CHEMSTAR contributions, is allocable to lobbying and political expenditures to which Section 162 (e)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, applies. Consequently, this portion of your commitment is not deductible as an ordinary and necessary business expense for federal income tax purposes. Further, contributions to CMA are not tax deductible as charitable contributions.
