"It is not that I simply dissent to the creeds, I believe them. I believe them as symbolic utterances of mankind's spiritual struggles and aspirations and as such they mean a thousand times more to me than they did in the days before anybody thought of calling me a heretic."

"I want to remain in the church.
"I want it more than life itself.
But I want to remain in the church only on the principle that a preacher's value depends solely on his freedom to learn and learn and learn."

FUSHING BISHOP QUESTION CONSIDERED

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 7.—Election of a president of the house of deputies and consideration of the question of election of a presiding bishop of the house of bishops marked the formal opening today of the 16th triennial convention of the Protestant Episcopal church of the United States.

Rev. L. M. Atires, D.D., rector of St. Thomas Church, New York, and bishop coadjutor-elect of the diocese of Long Island, was elected president of the house of deputies. Dr. Atires, who will be consecrated as bishop after the close of the convention, was elected by a vote of 310 to 201, over Rev. George Craig Stewart, rector of St. Luke's Church, Evanston, Ill. Rev. H. H. Powell, D.D., San Francisco, was nominated, but withdrew his name.

With Rt. Rev. Ethelbert Talbot, D.D., bishop of Bethlehem, presiding, the house of bishops opened its deliberations by naming bishop William C. Brown, Virginia, chairman of the house, and re-electing Rev. Charles T. Pordes, D.D., New York, secretary.

As soon as the house of deputies was organized, Rev. Carroll N. Davis, New York, was elected secretary. Assistant secretaries, appointed by the house of bishops were: Rev. John F. Plumb, Hartford, Ct., and the Rev. Alfred Lockwood, Pendleton, Or.

The case of Bishop William Montgomery Brown, twice convicted of heresy by church courts, did not come before the conference. Bishop Brown marched in the provincial of bishops at the Audubon Park ceremonies and sat in the afternoon session although he was not in his seat when the house formally opened. He came in later and took his meal, but did not join in the discussion.

It was said that his case may be brought before the House tomorrow.

At the session of the bishops this afternoon, bishops who have been consecrated since the last general convention were formally received. They included J. A. Huston, bishop of Olympia, Wash.
