Dear Mr. Jackson:

For 29 years, the American Road & Transportation Builders Association (ARTBA) has hosted our annual Public Private Partnerships (P3s) in Transportation Conference. This year's P3 Conference will take place July 12-14 at the Hyatt Regency Washington, 400 New Jersey Ave. NW, Washington, D.C. Among other topics, our attendees are very interested in hearing firsthand about the Trump Administration's interest in P3 development and related regulatory reforms. More information on the conference is available at www.artbap3.org.

A featured segment will provide an opportunity for administration officials to share their insights on current and emerging P3 and regulatory initiatives. We would be honored if you or another senior EPA policy official would join us for this session, which is scheduled for 1:30 to 2:30 pm on Thursday, July 13. Two Department of Transportation officials – Jim Ray of Secretary Elaine Chao's office and Marty Klepper of the Build America Bureau – have already confirmed to participate. Our attendees are very interested in regulatory reform and streamlining initiatives your agency is undertaking relating to transportation infrastructure projects (regardless of whether they are P3 projects or not).

You would also be welcome to join us as an honored guest at our awards luncheon, which immediately precedes that session (starting at 12:00 noon).

Please let me or Dean Franks know if you are available. I can be reached at 202-683-1004 or rjuliano@artba.org. Thank you for your consideration, and we hope to see you on July 13!

Sincerely,

Richard A. Juliano, CAE
Senior Vice President for Strategic Initiatives
Managing Director, P3 Division
