speakers at the first session will be Evan Just, director, Strategic Material Division, Economic Co-operation Administration, and Senator Malone (D., Nev.).

Just will discuss the effect of the foreign aid program on the mining industry while Malone will speak on reciprocal trade agreements.

At a welcoming lunch at the auditorium, Congressman Clair Engel of California will be guest speaker.

The afternoon session will be addressed by Senator Pat McCarran (D., Nev.) and Dr. Paul Einzig, British economist.

A supper and dance will be held at 7:30 tonight at the Mark Hopkins Hotel.
