Gov. Scott Appoints Chief Melanie Bevan to Statewide Council on Human Trafficking

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – Today, Governor Rick Scott announced the appointment of Chief Melanie Bevan to the Statewide Council on Human Trafficking.

Bevan, 52, of Bradenton, is the Chief of Police at the Bradenton Police Department. Bevan is a 31-year veteran law enforcement officer who most previously served as Assistant Chief at the St. Petersburg Police Department. She received her bachelor's degree from Saint Leo University, her master's degree from Troy State University, and her doctor of education degree from Argosy University. Bevan fills a vacant seat and is appointed for a term beginning November 15, 2017, and ending June 30, 2018.
