

Mr. James G. Bellows
August 12, 1976

-2-

oxygen are still the primary threats to life in fire situations.

The plastics industry is deeply concerned that PVC and all other plastics be made as safe as possible, not only for the workers who make them, but for the general public. We appreciate the opportunity to reaffirm this concern and to set the record straight with regard to PVC.

Cordially,

Ralph L. Harding, Jr.
President

RLH:lj

BCC: R. Adams
J. H. Heckman
J. Hadley
M. Swetonic
J. Blizin
J. R. Lawrence
E. S. Nuspliger