

anything short of shooting to make Connally, the ranking Democrat, trouble. The Russians are trying did not want any part of his to wear us out, scare us out, and youthful Arkansas colleague. When bluff us out of Berlin I may be the famous Fulbright resolution, optimistic, but I just don't think paving the way for the UN, was they want to fight us. That's introduced, Connally growled where we have a big edge over about "that upstart" them, and they know it. Of course, in a spot as full of dynamite as this, one trigger-happy soldier could start a war. That's why we have to keep our heads.

Fulbright asked the General about Soviet military and economic strength, and Clay said thoughtfully that he believed the Russians were overated. They SHOWMANSHIP — Robert Stirling, the lanky chief investigator of the House Un-American Activities Committee, is an experienced publicity hog. The latest incident was when the committee report on atomic spies was tossed out to the press. The plain committee room was America is like going through the Spanish Inquisition. After the usual rigmarole of investigations of friends, neighbors, ex-wives and high school sweethearts is completed, the cowering applicant is called before a board. These stern gentlemen sit around a table taking pot-shots at the fellow who is looking for a job. One interrogator will fire questions about the applicant's views on communism. Then there is a

For three hours, the unrelenting board dug into every detail of his life, from the way he brushed his teeth to his kindergarten songs. Then, from out of a clear sky, one of the State Department prosecutors shot out belligerently, "Do you always wear loud ties like that?"

The only reply was a soft hiss and a thud!
