

1 place, his family is from Eastville, Virginia, and 2 went down to my mother's relatives in Rocky River,
3 North Carolina, and we would travel up north in 4 Pennsylvania and then to different parts of Virginia.

5 He used to like family outings and also it
6 would involve kids from the neighborhood and my 7 parents would really involve kids from the 8 neighborhood.

9 We took them to I think it was the 1964 fair
10 in New York. Bradley Bailey and some other kids we 11 would take. So we would do that, go to those 12 different sort of vacations and do different things 13 like that.

14 Also in high school we had a tradition of 15 large family outings for Thanksgiving and Christmas
16 where relatives would come over and we would go either 17 to my uncle's house or another uncle's house or my 18 aunt's house and have things.

19 My father was a very family-oriented
20 person.
