Dear Mr. Winther,

I am contacting you as I understand you are the expert and responsible for the upcoming PFAS restriction under REACH. As you might be aware, 3M is both a producer of some PFAS chemicals in Europe (e.g. fluoropolymers and 3M Novec products), as well as a user of PFAS-enabled materials in many applications, which we believe are critical for society. We contributed a lot of information during both calls for evidence already, but would appreciate also an opportunity for a direct conversation with you in the context of the upcoming PFAS restriction under REACH, which you are working on together with other countries.

Would you agree to propose a few timeslots for a meeting (perhaps the week of 22 March)?

Lastly, I would also like to take an opportunity to share with you 3M's recent environmental stewardship commitments:

Thank you & I look forward to our discussion.

Best regards, P2
