Ryan –

Thank you very much for taking time to meet with the guys from Peabody Energy a few weeks ago. Really appreciated.

They recently saw a media mention that Administrator Pruitt is headed to Australia in early September for Minerals Week and is slated to attend a dinner at the Embassy in Canberra. Whereas Peabody has several mining facilities in Australia, they would like to extend an invitation to the Administrator to visit one of their mines.

Their Metropolitan Mine is just about an hour outside of Sydney and would be a great underground mine for the Administrator to visit. Assuming he will pass thru Sydney at some point in his travels to/from Canberra, please let me know if you would like to further discuss this possible visit.

Thanks as always for your time and consideration.

Thanks,

Scott
