

To: Jackson, Ryan[jackson.ryan@epa.gov]; Lyons, Troy[lyons.troy@epa.gov]
Cc: Wm. Reyn Archer, M.D.[reyn.archer@mail.house.gov]; David H. Barron[ Ex. 6 - Personal Privacy John Gantt[johngantt@iccfoundation.us]; Ringel, Aaron[ringel.aaron@epa.gov]
From: Nick Flocken
Sent: Fri 10/20/2017 9:24:54 PM
Subject: Invitation to ICCF Dinner at Charlie Palmers on 10/25

Troy and Ryan, Per the suggestion of Congressman Fortenberry, please pass this along to the Administrator. Thank you.

Administrator Pruitt:

Please join ICCF for a dinner regarding economic development and conservation of the Okavango Delta region with key private sector developers, regional governments and Members of Congress on Wednesday, October 25 at Charlie Palmer Steaks (101 Constitution Ave., NW) at 7:00pm.

The full invitation can be found here: <http://internationalconservation.org/events/2017/10.25/invitation.html>

In addition to the ambassadors from Botswana, Angola, and Namibia, attendees include leaders from:

USAID

Dept. of Interior

Vulcan

Africa Parks

National Geographic

U.S. Congressmen including (Sen. Portman, Sen. Risch, Rep. Fortenberry, Rep. Royce, Rep. Cuellar, Rep. Stewart and many others)

We hope you are able to join.

Kind regards,

Nick

--

Nicholas I. Flocken

Director, U.S. Government Relations

International Conservation Caucus Foundation

25786 Georgetown Station

Washington, D.C. 20027-8786

nflocken@iccfoundation.us

Cell: (202) 836-3307

Office: (202) 471-4222

internationalconservation.org

