363-P.

Gentlemen:

Reverting to the above application, we regret to inform you that, as a reaction to the last amendment filed by us in reply to the last Official Action, now we have received an official letter in which, under the consideration that such last amendment has not complied with all the requisites fixed by the Examiner. The applicant is again compelled to fully comply with such requisites by amending the claims presently on file in accordance with the following indications:

a) Improve the wording of claim 1, substituting the word "means" by the proper technical terms.

This Official letter is in line with the practice of the Patent Office directed to avoid interminable prosecutions of patent applications. The Official letter herein reported fixes a term expiring on:

~~JULY 12, 1988~~
