A plaque marking the site of the first Protestant church in California will be placed in the City Park of Benicia by the Native Sons of the Golden West and the Native Daughters of the Golden West, Parlors 89 and 287, in a ceremony to be held Sunday, April 24, at 3 p.m.

The wording of the bronze plaque will be as follows:

"SITE OF THE FIRST PROTESTANT CHURCH IN CALIFORNIA. On this site was organized by the Rev. Sylvester Woodbridge Jr. on April 15, 1849, the First Presbyterian Church of Benicia.

"This was the first Protestant Church established in California with an ordained resident pastor. The church was disbanded in 1875.

"Erected by Historical Landmark Committee Grand Parlor Native Sons and Benicia Parlor No. 89 and Benicia Parlor No. 287 Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West."

Reverend Woodbridge arrived in California in February, 1848. He came from a family of ministers, and was 36 years old. He was persuaded to organize the First Presbyterian Church in Benicia, since that city was destined to become "the Metropolis of the West." The church that he organized in a school building became the first Protestant church in California with an ordained minister.

He preached on Sundays, taught school on weekdays, and slept in the building at night in a sailor hammock which he hung from the rafters. Even after his visions of the greatness of Benicia had faded, Rev. Woodbridge remained at the church for 18 years.

After he left, the church was

Crockett Sisters Win Talent Event

CROCKETT — Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Nelson held a double celebration yesterday.

Their daughters, Betty and Patricia, were both chosen prize winners from 2,100 Northern California young people in the talent show in San Francisco.

Betty took a first for her scrapbook of pressed California wild flowers and a $20 award, while Patricia was given a second and $5 for her butterfly collection.

Awards were made in four age groups in divisions of arts, crafts, natural history and science.
