...Ventura and many of them to Los Angeles to do their banking business. When wage earners have been paid in checks they have been greatly inconvenienced and many times have been unable to get funds until they have gone to other places.
 It has remained for the First National Bank of Ventura to come to the relief of these people and the directors of this growing Ventura institution have made all the necessary preparations to organize a bank at Fillmore which will suffice all of the needs of the people of that section and will prove a valuable aid to the steadily progressing business interests of the eastern part of Ventura county.

The new bank is to be known as The State Bank of Fillmore. A location has been decided upon and business will be inaugurated just as soon as possible. Vaults will be installed and everything needed in a first class bank will be put in place.

The articles of incorporation of the bank have been filed with the County Clerk. They show the stockholders of the bank to be among the leading men of Fillmore section and in addition leading financiers of Ventura and Los Angeles. The following stockholders are included:
