and watch.
And the police said they had other evidence as well.
It included a taxi driver, Harry Schlitten, who confessed he drove the defendants to the park that daybreak of February 26.
Schlitten said that Stein had named Radeloff as the gent for whom the boys had done the job. The hackie also said he'd seen the pair pull on the rope that choked Vivian.
"NOT GUILTY."
It seemed a good case for the State. Likely conviction. Not so. Much to the surprise of almost everybody except the defendants' lawyer, the verdict was: "Not guilty."
Stein later returned to his natural habitat with a twenty-five year sentence on a burglary rap, but nobody else was bothered and the mystery of who twisted the rope around the red-head's neck officially remains unsolved to this day.

it the appearance of a giant stairway, and from a distance it looks like the top apartments are leaning precariously to the right.
But it is all an optical illusion—future tenants of the structure need have no fears.

Church Dedication

Ceremonies dedicating the new $125,000 St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Pinole will be held June 3 with a program starting at 10 a. m. and continuing through the afternoon, it was announced yesterday.

Gilbert D. Calden has been elected president of the Family Service Bureau of Oakland, a Community Chest agency, it was announced after the annual election session.
Elected first and second vice presidents respectively were Paul E. Demeter and Mrs. Robert K. Smith, while Mrs. Noel B. Lenahan was re-elected treasurer. New directors include Mrs. Lee B. Kidwell, Mrs. Howard C. Inman, Mrs. George A. Mays, Harry B. Schroeter Jr., Jack J. Carlson and Maurice B. Smith.
