

INDUSTRIAL HYGIENE FOUNDATION
OF AMERICA, Inc.

Proceedings of the
SIXTH ANNUAL MEETING OF MEMBERS

PITTSBURGH, PENNSYLVANIA
NOVEMBER 12-13, 1941

*Proc. Indust. Hyg. Found.
America, 1941, 6:*

CONTENTS

	Page
Foundation Activities in 1941—
H. B. Meller	1
Protection of Men and Machines in the National Emergency—
E. A. Tamm	3
Sick Absenteeism Among a Sample of Member Companies of the Industrial Hygiene Foundation, First Six Months of 1941—
Dr. W. M. Gafafer	12
What the Results of Absenteeism Audit Mean in Dollars and Cents—
Andrew Fletcher	28
Report of the Medical Committee—
A. J. Lanza, M. D.	35
Aluminum Powder as a Possible Preventive in Silicosis—Present Status of Experimental Work—
D. W. Crombie, M. D. and J. L. Blaisdell, M. D.	37
Protection of Workers in Wartime—
Captain C. S. Stephenson (MC), U. S. N.	43
Effects of Arc Welding Fumes on Susceptibility to Tuberculosis—
Leroy U. Gardner, M. D.	44
Tuberculosis in Industry—
Leroy U. Gardner, M. D.	45
Trends Toward Compensation for Tuberculosis as an Industrial Disease—
Theodore C. Waters	47
A Comparison of Stereoscopic Miniature Chest Films, Single Roent- genograms on Paper, and Single Roentgenograms on Large Films—
Eugene P. Pendergrass, M. D.; S. Reid Warren, Jr., Sc. D.; and Darrow E. Haagensen, M. S.	56
Reactions of Living Tissues to Silica Granules as Observed Micro- scopically in the Rabbit's Ear Chamber—
Eliot R. Clark, M. D. and Darrow E. Haagensen, M. S.	57
The Employability of the Handicapped—
Henry H. Kessler, M. D., Ph. D.	58
Employability of the Physically Handicapped—
M. M. Walter	61
Findings from Major Studies of Fatigue—
R. R. Sayers, M. D.	66
Discussion—
J. R. Garner, M. D.	100
Some Comments on the New Federal Coal Mine Inspection Act—
R. R. Sayers, M. D.	104