

File as usual

There was no letter from Barry concerning the manuscript, which I brought back with me from Ellesmere Port where I met with Barry and Newman and talked about some of the matter.

Consulted later with Barry in New York at time of the CP meeting at the Ambassador where the altered manuscript was seen and discussed.