Face Oklahoma "No Play" Law

RENO, Nev., Oct. 21 (UP)—Two that Tulsa must obey the laws of its state and I say unqualifiedly that if we learn in Tulsa that Howard and Tabor can't play, that will end the matter.

Backfield ace Sherman Howard, first string fullback, and Alva Tabor, reserve quarterback, may have to sit on the bench Saturday when their teammates play against Tulsa University because the State of Oklahoma has a law against colored players appearing on athletic fields against white players.

Nevada Coach Joe Sheeketski said Tulsa University officials had reminded him of the law. He said there was no definite commitment made as to the policy to be followed and that he plans to "meet the situation when and if it arises."

"I want to make it plain right now," said Sheeketski, "that Nevada is not making any rash statements about this issue. I realize

Cleveland Bat Boy Rates $3,000 Slice

CLEVELAND, Oct. 21 (AP)—For a bat boy, Billy Sherman made himself a fair bundle of cash. Billy worked for the world champion Cleveland Indians this season and figures his earnings came to nearly $3,000.

So they're calling 16-year-old Billy "old moneybags," in his neighborhood. His regret? The Indians, according to custom, will get a new bat boy next year.
