agent was?

A You mean at Hampshire?

Q From the Plasterers' Union?

A No, that I cannot remember.

MS. TOSTANOSKI: That is all I have. Thank you very much.

THE COURT: Anything else, Mr. Shellenberger?

MR. SHELLENBERGER: No, sir.

THE COURT: All right, Ms. Vandergucht, thank you very much, ma'am. You may step down.

(Whereupon, witness excused.)

MR. IGNATOWSKI: Your Honor, I have -- there is a stipulation between counsel for Owens-Illinois and Owens-Corning Fiberglas and plaintiffs, that the medical expenses in the Vandergucht case amount to $13,974.35, and that those medical expenses are fair and reasonable.

I have one admission that I am going to read into evidence, and then Mr. Smith has about three or four documents that he is going to read very quickly,
