

1 Your Honor, and I think I am done.

2 Thank you, Your Honor. Thank you, ladies
3 and gentlemen.

4 THE COURT: You are welcome.

5 MR. SHELLENBERGER: Your Honor, we marked as
6 Miscellaneous Number 1 the life tables for 1991.

7 Is your preference to have it moved in or
8 just have it for ID?

9 THE COURT: You can move it in, but just
10 read out that portion which relates to the plaintiff.

11 MR. SHELLENBERGER: We will move that now
12 and incorporate that into your instructions at the end
13 of the case.

14 THE COURT: Very well.

15 MR. SHELLENBERGER: Move in Miscellaneous
16 Number 1 into evidence at this time.

17 THE COURT: Very well.

18 (Whereupon, Plaintiffs' Exhibit Number
19 Miscellaneous 1 was received into evidence.)

20 MR. SHELLENBERGER: Your Honor, in 21 addition, the plaintiffs would at this time move into
