So tell me again, how long you've been in your current role, and how you ended up there?

I'm always intrigued by people who aren't from DC, but end up there in prestigious roles like yourself.

There is no group I'd rather work with than our agents. I have the pleasure of learning quite a lot from them.

Dinner would be excellent. Please don't hesitate to reach out the next time you are in town and I'll do the same.

Millan,

It was my pleasure! I really enjoyed working with the protective detail and staff. You truly are part of a great team there. I'm not an easily impressed person, but I was impressed with your crew. I know sometimes the PSD agents can be wound a little tight, which is tough on staff, but you handled it very well.
