evidence.

(Whereupon, Plaintiffs' Exhibit Number OCF-749 was received into evidence.)

MR. SMITH: You will find attached my appraisal of the capability of our staff areas to assist Kaylo in its position in continuing its trends in increasing profit levels.

Kaylo is a part of Owens-Corning Fiberglas Corporation and damned proud to be one of the company's profit leaders. We intend to stay there.

Mr. Hardwick signed it.

The next exhibit is our OCF Exhibit 90. Mr. Staelin is the corporate -- was the corporate secretary of OCF and an attorney in our law department, October 27, 1966.

It is our Exhibit Number 90, Your Honor.

THE COURT: It will be admitted into evidence.

(Whereupon, Plaintiffs' Exhibit Number OCF-90 was received into evidence.)

MR. SMITH: Mr. Edwards was the director of