case you slip over-board, for you couldn't do a thing with a person in boots!"

And the cold! There is something about the Pacific that defies longitude and the sun from 50 yards on away from shore, where it turns colder than Greenland. That, of course, is why these experienced men were zippered up in staunch leather or water-proofed jackets, completely lamb lined, and with wool shirts under that. And the women too, of course. And when I ventured something about prettier colors than all that tan—what a razzing I had to take. I can see that deep sea fishing is a serious sport with no room for aesthetics in it. And it evidently is one place where slacks have the undisputed "aye"—whatever the scales say!

They tell me (these fishing experts) that women can do a

Two-Party System Is Subject of Talk

"The Two-Party System of Government" will be the subject of the talk to be given by Mrs. Agnes Morley Cleveland, former northern division organizer of Republican women's clubs in California, when she is guest speaker at the garden tea to be given by the Palo Alto Republican Women's Club tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. Arthur J. Hill, Camino por los Arboles, Atherton.

The tea, at which guests will be received between 2 and 5 o'clock, will celebrate the first anniversary of the founding of Republican women's clubs in California. Mrs. Cleveland will be heard at 2:30.

In the receiving line will be the local club's officers and board members—Mrs. Tom Ashlock, Mrs. Ben S. Allen, Mrs. Harold Severance, Mrs. Rena Monroe, Mrs. Herbert Hoover, Miss Susan Dyer, Mrs. Edwin Thomas, Mrs. Ray Whittern, Mrs. Lyle De Witt, and Mrs. John Coates.

Mrs. Henry Carmean, tea chairman, requests that reservations be made immediately to Mrs. Hill (P. A. 22376) or to Mrs. Allen (P. A. 7126).

Organization for the coming year is to be set up, under program material supplied by the National Republican Committee, and committee appointments are to be made. The 160 members of the local club will be asked to renew their membership and may take guests who may be prospective members.

requested to Mrs. C. H. Hamilton (Burlingame 5858).
