David,
How about a call at 3 pm eastern time on Friday, tomorrow?

Yes, we have been given the slot at 2:00 pm on Tuesday, March 21.

If you have a few minutes tomorrow, I think that a quick call with Dee Zinke and Roger Patterson might be the best thing, and then we can send you any paper backup that you need. Otherwise, I fear that we will bury you with stuff.

Please let us know. Dee and Roger are in CA, so there is a 3-hour time difference.

Thanks.

Dave and Brad,
Seems like the meeting with Secretary Zinke is happening. I will be briefing him beforehand, so what do I need to tell him so he is best prepared for the discussion with Metropolitan's Chairman?

Thanks,

I'm sorry to bug you, but I just want to be sure that this request is in the Secretary's system. Is there a specific appointments person that I should contact as well?

Thank you.

Scott:

Thank you for your kind offer to convey this very important meeting request to the appropriate person in Secretary Zinke's office. The attached letter from Randy Record, Chairman of the Metropolitan Water District of Southern California, speaks for itself. All we in Met's DC operation can add is our renewed commitment to work with the Department of Interior on consensus-based solutions. Please let us know what else that the Department may require to facilitate this meeting request. Thank you.

Cordially,

--Dave Ramey

PS Met's Assistant General Manager/Chief External Affairs Officer cc'd above and referenced below, Ms. Dee Zinke, pronounces her last name zink ... but is open to a pronunciation change ... if that helps.
