

Johnson & Johnson

BABY PRODUCTS COMPANY

RARITAN, N. J. 08869

Johnson & Johnson Worldwide Talc SourcesMarch, 1977Category I Maximum Confidence

Long experience of established quality, purity, uniformity and reliability of supply. Outstanding performance for many years when compounded into Johnson's Baby Powder. Extensive technical information known.

Country of Origin

Redacted: Other Product

1c. U.S.A.

Grade - Windsor 66

Supplier - Windsor Minerals
Windsor, Vermont

Talc is mined, milled, beneficiated and shipped from Windsor Minerals, Windsor, Vermont, U.S.A.

Category II High Confidence

Good experience but not in Category I due to either (a) lack of complete information at BPC Research or (b) short term reliability or (c) minor physical characteristics such as color or bulking less than ideal above talcs in Category I.

Redacted: Other Product

Category III Confidence Undetermined

Due to (a) insufficient information in B.P.C. Research or (b) lack of processing experience or (c) below upper category talcs in color, crystallography, or reliability of source.

Redacted: Other Product

Category IV Questionable Sources No Confidence

Due to (a) lack of reliable information or (b) conflicting information or (c) non-uniformity and/or mineral contamination.

Redacted: Other Product