Officers Reassigned

CHULA VISTA—Police Chief Eugene Roberts said yesterday that Sgt. Jack Dowell had been assigned as chief juvenile officer and that Officer Robert Pauline had been named sergeant in charge of the 4 p.m. to midnight patrol.

man who hijacked him at an abandoned military air strip near Desert Center. He said one of the men kicked him.

Spicuzza testified 40 boxes of contraband birds were bought on credit in Mexico City and were flown to the air strip to be trucked to Los Angeles. He told one hijacker the birds would bring between $25,000 — $35,000, he said.

In his testimony Hadzima said he, Duke and Victor F. Buono had planned the hijacking.

EL CENTRO — Ed McClain, 28, an El Centro newspaper reporter, Thursday became Imperial County's first polio patient of the year.

McClain's physician said yesterday his condition was fair. McClain lives at 873½ Olive Ave., El Centro.
