Hi Sydney,

Just checking in again to see if we can get on Administrator Pruitt's schedule for the 27th or 28th? If Mr. Pruitt's schedule does not allow, would it be possible to meet with one of his advisors, perhaps his Chief of Staff Ryan Jackson?

Thank you,

Joe

Hi Sydney,

The good folks over at EPW suggested that I reach out to you.

The CEO and board president of the National Sorghum Producers will be in town the last week of April and would greatly appreciate the opportunity to meet with Administrator Pruitt. We'd like to express our appreciation on some recent actions by EPA, specifically on WOTUS and Chlorpyrifos. In addition, we would like to discuss the Grain Sorghum Oil Biodiesel Pathway Petition, originally submitted to EPA in July, 2016 and some specific crop protection concerns.

We're hopeful that a meeting could be possible on Thursday (April 27th) or Friday (April 28th).
However, they are willing to adjust their arrival times if Wednesday (26th) offers the only opportunity.

Thank you,

Joe

Sydney:

Thanks for all your help in arranging the meeting this morning with AGA Chairman, Pierce Norton and Dave McCurdy, President and CEO to meet with the Administrator.

Dave will be following up with a letter in reference to the upcoming World Gas Conference that will be held in DC, June 25-29, 2018. We are looking forward to the global industry event and it will be AGA's centennial as well.

FYI - Dave's daughter's name is Sydney; however it's spelled with a "C". Are you from Oklahoma as well. Dave will be attending the Altus breakfast in the morning on Capitol Hill.

Thanks again.

Regards,

Lisa

Thanks.
