My dear Dr. Edsall:

I am enclosing a copy of a letter from Mr. Clinton Crane, President of the St. Joseph Lead Company, 250 Park Ave., New York, and also my reply to that letter. I think very possibly you will want them for your files, and so am sending them to you.

Very sincerely yours,

My dear Mr. Crane:

I am sorry if you expected to hear from me after our pleasant luncheon in New York, but I thought that probably I had better wait to hear from you, as I did not want to be too insistent about further financing of the lead studies. As a result I was very glad to receive your letter today assuring us of this further financing. We will at once get to work and arrange for a team to continue our studies, and whenever it is convenient for you to send the first $5000.00 it would be very nice to have it on hand to defray expenses as they arise. Of course we appreciate your generosity very much and wish to thank you and your associates. We only hope that the work will continue to give as positive results.

I want to thank you again for the pleasure I had in both meeting you and the others at luncheon. I shall keep you informed as new work is finished and shall send you reprints of the various publications as they appear.

Very sincerely yours,

(Signed) Joseph C. Aub.

Dear Dr. Aub:

I have not heard from you since our meeting in New York and am wondering whether you understand that I am engaging to provide you with $5000 a year for the next two years to go on with your lead work. Will you let me know what your plans are and when you are going to need part of this money ?

Yours very truly,

(Signed) Clinton H. Crane.

President.

My dear Dr. Edsall:

My understanding of the Lead Fund was that it was given for the study of lead poisoning without any strings attached, and that the additional $5000.00 was given on the same basis as the original money, so that I think it would be perfectly justifiable to use it for such a trip as the Spray Painting Committee. It is certainly a thing the manufacturers are probably more interested in anyhow, as it is distinctly a practical matter.

I therefore assume that you think it is perfectly proper for me to use some of it for this trip.

Very sincerely yours,

Joseph C. Aub.
