

Ch. J. Director 1956

St. Louis, April 25--Andrew Fletcher, president of the St. Joseph Lead Co. of New York, was today reelected President of the Lead Industries Association at its Twenty-Eighth Annual Meeting.

The representatives of the lead mining, smelting and manufacturing industries also reelected as vice presidents; K. C. Brownell, president, American Smelting & Refining Co. N. Y., J. A. Martino, president, National Lead Co., N. Y., and M. M. Zoller, vice president, The Eagle-Picher Co., Cincinnati, Ohio. Robert L. Ziegfeld was reelected Secretary-Treasurer.

In addition to the officers, the following were elected Directors of the Lead Industries Association: John R. Bradley, president, The Bunker Hill Company; J. A. Costello, vice president, Ethyl Corp.; W. H. H. Cranmer, president, New Park Mining Co.; H. L. Day, president, Day Mines, Inc.; S. A. Easton, chairman of the board, The Bunker Hill Company; Clarence Glass, vice president, Anaconda Sales Co., Agents, International Smelting & Refining Co.; K. W. Green, director of purchases, Electric Storage Battery Co.; F. S. Mulock, president, United States Smelting, Refining & Mining Co.; Frederick Walker, vice president, Federated Metals Div., American Smelting & Refining Co.; J. P. Ruth, vice president, The Glidden Co.; and Jean Vuillequez, vice president, American Metal Co. Ltd.

LIAC31cc

Messrs. Fletcher, Bradley, Brownell, Costello, Martino and Mulock were reelected to the Association's Executive Committee.