The Travelers Insurance Company

and

The Travelers Indemnity Company

Hartford, Connecticut

(Each a Stock Insurance Company, Herein Called the Company)

Severally Agree with the insured, named in the declarations made a part hereof, in consideration of the payment of the premium and in reliance upon the statements in the declarations and subject to the limits of liability, exclusions, conditions and other terms of this policy, provided The Travelers Insurance Company shall be the insurer with respect to Coverage A and no other and The Travelers Indemnity Company shall be the insurer with respect to Coverage B and no other:

Insuring Agreements

I. Coverage A—Bodily Injury Liability

To pay on behalf of the insured all sums which the insured shall become obligated to pay by reason of the liability imposed upon him by law, or assumed by him under contract as defined herein, for damages, including damages for care and loss of services, because of bodily injury, sickness or disease, including death at any time resulting therefrom, sustained by any person or persons and caused by accident.

Coverage B—Property Damage Liability

To pay on behalf of the insured all sums which the insured shall become obligated to pay by reason of the liability imposed upon him by law, or assumed by him under contract as defined herein, for damages because of injury to or destruction of property, including the loss of use thereof, caused by accident.

II. Defense, Settlement, Supplementary Payments. As respects such insurance as is afforded by the other terms of this policy the company shall

(a) defend in his name and behalf any suit against the insured alleging such injury, sickness, disease or destruction and seeking damages on account thereof, even if such suit is groundless, false or fraudulent; but the company shall have the right to make such investigation, negotiation and settlement of any claim or suit as may be deemed expedient by the company;

(b) pay all premiums on bonds to release attachments for an amount not in excess of the applicable limit of liability of this policy, all premiums on appeal bonds required in any such defended suit, but without any obligation to apply for or furnish such bonds, all costs taxed against the insured in any such suit, all expenses incurred by the company, all interest accruing after entry of judgment until the company has paid, tendered or deposited in court such part of such judgment as does not exceed the limit of the company's liability thereon, and expenses incurred by the insured, in the event of bodily injury, sickness or disease, for such immediate medical and surgical relief to others as shall be imperative at the time of accident;

(c) reimburse the insured for all reasonable expenses, other than loss of earnings, incurred at the company's request.

The company agrees to pay the amounts incurred under this insuring agreement, except settlements of claims and suits, in addition to the applicable limit of liability of this policy.

III. Definition of "Insured." The unqualified word "insured" includes the named insured and also includes any partner, executive officer, director or stockholder thereof while acting within the scope of his duties as such.

IV. Policy Period, Territory. This policy applies only to accidents which occur during the policy period within the United States of America, its territories or possessions, Canada or Newfoundland.

Exclusions

This policy does not apply:

(a) except with respect to operations performed by independent contractors, to the ownership, maintenance or use, including loading or unloading, of (1) watercraft while away from premises owned, rented or controlled by the named insured, (2) automobiles while away from such premises or the ways immediately adjoining, or (3) aircraft;

(b) to liability assumed by the insured under any contract or agreement not defined herein;

(c) under Coverage A, except with respect to liability assumed under contract covered by this policy, to bodily injury to or sickness, disease or death of any employee of the insured while engaged in the employment of the insured, or to any obligation for which the insured or any company as his insurer may be held liable under any workmen's compensation law;

(d) under Coverage B, to injury to or destruction of (1) property owned, occupied or used by or rented to the insured, or (2) except with respect to liability assumed under sidetrack agreements and the use of elevators or escalators, property in the care, custody or control of the insured, or (3) any goods or products manufactured, sold, handled or distributed or premises alienated by the named insured, or work completed by or for the named insured, out of which the accident arises;

(e) under Coverage B, except with respect to liability assumed under contract covered by this policy and except in so far as this exclusion is stated in the declarations to be inapplicable, to (1) the discharge, leakage or overflow of water or steam from plumbing, heating, refrigerating or air-conditioning systems, elevator tanks or cylinders, standpipes for fire hose, or industrial or domestic appliances, or any substance from automatic sprinkler systems, (2) the collapse or fall of tanks or the component parts or supports thereof which form a part of automatic sprinkler systems, or (3) rain or snow admitted directly to the building interior through defective roofs, leaders or spouting, or open or defective doors, windows, skylights, transoms or ventilators, in so far as any of these occur on or from premises owned or rented by the named insured and injure or destroy buildings or contents thereof.

Conditions

The conditions, except Conditions 8 and 9, apply to all coverages. Conditions 8 and 9 apply only to the coverage or coverages noted thereunder.

1. Premium. The premium bases and rates for the hazards described in the declarations are stated therein. Premium bases and rates for hazards not so described are those applicable in accordance with the manuals in use by the company.

The premium stated in the declarations is an estimated premium only. Upon termination of this policy, the earned premium shall be computed in accordance with the company's rules, rates, rating plans, premiums and minimum premiums applicable to this insurance. If the earned premium thus computed exceeds the estimated advance premium paid, the named insured shall pay the excess to the company; if less, the company shall return to the named insured the unearned portion paid by such insured.

OVERTIME AND LIMITATION OF REMUNERATION ENDORSEMENT

It is agreed that:

1. If the Employer's books are maintained so as to show separately, by employee and by classes of work covered by the Policy,

   (a) the remuneration earned at regular rates of pay for total hours worked, and

   (b) extra remuneration earned for overtime

   the remuneration upon which premium for the Policy is based shall include all remuneration specified in subdivision (a) foregoing and shall not include any of the remuneration specified in subdivision (b) foregoing.

2. If the Employer's books are maintained so as to show separately, by employee and by classes of work covered by the Policy,

   (a) the remuneration earned at regular rates of pay for those hours worked when there is no overtime, and

   (b) the remuneration earned at regular rates of pay and for overtime for those hours worked when there is overtime

   the remuneration upon which the premium for the Policy is based shall include all remuneration specified in subdivision (a) and two-thirds of the remuneration specified in subdivision (b) foregoing.

3. "Overtime" means those hours worked when there is an increase in rate of pay because of holidays, Saturdays, Sundays, the number of days worked in any one week, or the number of hours worked in any one day.

4. If the Employer's books are maintained so as to show separately, by employee and by classes of work covered by the Policy, the total remuneration earned by all employees whose individual average weekly remuneration for the total time worked during the Policy Period exceeds $100 per week after deductions, if any, permitted under the provisions of Paragraphs 1 or 2 foregoing have been made, there shall be excluded from the remuneration upon which the premium for the Policy is based that part of the remuneration of each such employee that is in excess of an average weekly remuneration of $100 per week. A part of a week shall be considered as a full week in determining the average weekly remuneration.

   If this Employer is a corporation, the provisions of the foregoing paragraph do not apply to the remuneration of the President, any Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer and other executive officers elected or appointed in accordance with the charter and by-laws of such corporation.

QUARTERLY PREMIUM PAYMENT

(1) In lieu of the payment in advance of the entire advance premium stated in this Policy, the Employer or Insured shall pay upon delivery of this Policy the sum expressed in the declarations and hereinafter referred to as the deposit premium.

(2) A date three calendar months after the date upon which this Policy Period begins shall be known as the first adjustment day and the corresponding date of each successive third month thereafter, including the date of the expiration of this Policy Period, shall be known as adjustment days.

(3) Upon the first and all succeeding adjustment days there shall be a further premium immediately due the Company when determined either by audit, as provided in the Policy, or by written statement to be furnished by the Employer or Insured upon written request exhibiting the basis for premium computation as set forth in the Policy. The acceptance of such a statement of premium basis by the Company or the receipt of premium thereon shall not operate as a waiver of the Company's right to audit the books of the Employer or Insured as provided in the Policy.

(4) The deposit premium shall be applied to the last quarterly settlement only. The provisions of this endorsement shall apply to any extension of this Policy Period.

This endorsement is executed by The Travelers Insurance Company as respects insurance afforded by that Company only; it is executed by The Travelers Indemnity Company as respects insurance afforded by that Company only.

When used as a premium basis:

(1) the word "remuneration" shall mean the entire remuneration earned during the policy period by all employees of the named insured, other than drivers of teams or automobiles, subject with respect to each executive officer to a maximum and a minimum remuneration of $100 and $30 per week, and the remuneration of each proprietor at a fixed amount of $2,000 per annum;

(2) the word "receipts" shall mean the gross amount of money, including taxes, charged by the named insured for such operations by the named insured or by others during the policy period as are rated on a receipts basis;

(3) the word "cost" shall mean the total cost of all operations performed for the named insured during the policy period by independent contractors on each separate project, including materials used or delivered for use, except maintenance or ordinary alterations and repairs on premises owned or rented by the named insured;

(4) the word "sales" shall mean the gross amount of money, including taxes, charged for all goods and products sold or distributed during the policy period by the named insured or by others trading under his name.

The named insured shall maintain for each hazard records of the information necessary for premium computation on the basis stated in the declarations, and shall send copies of such records to the company at the end of the policy period and at such times during the policy period as the company may direct.

2. Inspection and Audit. The company shall be permitted to inspect the insured premises, operations and elevators and to examine and audit the insured's books and records at any time during the policy period and any extension thereof and within one year after the final termination of this policy, as far as they relate to the premium bases or the subject matter of this insurance.

3. Notice of Accident. When an accident occurs written notice shall be given by or on behalf of the insured to the company or any of its authorized agents as soon as practicable. Such notice shall contain particulars sufficient to identify the insured and also reasonably obtainable information respecting the time, place and circumstances of the accident, the names and addresses of the injured and of available witnesses.

4. Notice of Claim or Suit. If claim is made or suit is brought against the insured, the insured shall immediately forward to the company every demand, notice, summons or other process received by him or his representative.

5. Assistance and Cooperation of the Insured. The insured shall cooperate with the company and, upon the company's request, shall attend hearings and trials and shall assist in effecting settlements, securing and giving evidence, obtaining the attendance of witnesses and in the conduct of suits. The insured shall not, except at his own cost, voluntarily make any payment, assume any obligation or incur any expense other than for such immediate medical and surgical relief to others as shall be imperative at the time of accident.

6. Definitions. (a) Contract. The word "contract" shall mean a warranty of goods or products or, if in writing, a lease of premises, easement agreement, agreement required by municipal ordinance, sidetrack agreement, or elevator or escalator maintenance agreement.

(b) Automobile. The word "automobile" shall mean a land motor vehicle, trailer or semitrailer, provided the following described equipment shall not be deemed an automobile except while towed by or carried on a motor vehicle not so described: any crawler-type tractor, farm implement, farm tractor or trailer not subject to motor vehicle registration, ditch or trench digger, power crane or shovel, grader, scraper, roller, well drilling machinery, asphalt spreader, concrete mixer and mixing and finishing equipment for highway work, other than a concrete mixer of the mix-in-transit type.

(c) Products Hazard. The term "products hazard" shall mean

(1) the handling or use of, the existence of any condition in or a warranty of goods or products manufactured, sold, handled or distributed by the named insured, other than equipment rented to or located for use of others but not sold, if the accident occurs after the insured has relinquished possession thereof to others and away from premises owned, rented or controlled by the insured or on premises for which the classification stated in division (a) of the declarations or in the company's manual excludes any part of the foregoing;

(2) operations, if the accident occurs after such operations have been completed or abandoned at the place of occurrence thereof and away from premises owned, rented or controlled by the insured, except (a) pick-up and delivery, (b) the existence of tools, uninstalled equipment and abandoned or unused materials and (c) operations for which the classification stated in division (a) of the declarations or in the company's manual specifically includes completed operations; provided, operations shall not be deemed incomplete because improperly or defectively performed or because further operations may be required pursuant to a service or maintenance agreement.

(d) Assault and Battery. Assault and battery shall be deem[illegible] an accident unless committed by or at the direction of the insur[illegible]

7. Limits of Liability. The inclusion herein of more than [illegible] shall not operate to increase the limits of the company's [illegible]

8. Limits of Liability. Coverage A The limit of bodily injury liability sta[illegible] the declarations as applicable to "each [illegible]son" is the limit of the company's liability for all damages, in[illegible] damages for care and loss of services, arising out of bodily injury, sickness or disease, including death at any time resulting therefrom, sustained by one person in any one accident; the limit of such liability stated in the declarations as applicable to "each accident" is, subject to the above provision respecting each person, the total limit of the company's liability for all damages, including damages for care and loss of services, arising out of bodily injury, sickness or disease, including death at any time resulting therefrom, sustained by two or more persons in any one accident.

9. Limits of Liability. Coverage B The limit of property damage liability stated in the declarations as "aggregate operations" is the total limit of the company's liability for all damages arising out of injury to or destruction of property, including the loss of use thereof, caused by the ownership, maintenance or use of premises or operations rated upon a remuneration premium basis or by contractors' equipment rated on a receipts premium basis.

The limit of property damage liability stated in the declarations as "aggregate protective" is the total limit of the company's liability for all damages arising out of injury to or destruction of property, including the loss of use thereof, caused by operations performed for the named insured by independent contractors or omissions or supervisory acts of the insured in connection therewith, except maintenance or ordinary alterations and repairs on premises owned or rented by the named insured.

The limit of property damage liability stated in the declarations as "aggregate contractual" is the total limit of the company's liability for all damages arising out of injury to or destruction of property, including the loss of use thereof, with respect to each contract.

These limits apply separately to each project with respect operations being performed away from premises owned or rented by the named insured.

10. Limits of Liability—Products. The limits of bodily injury liability and property damage liability stated in the declarations as "aggregate products" are respectively the total limits of the company's liability for all damages arising out of the products hazard. All such damages arising out of one prepared or acquired lot of goods or products shall be considered as arising out of one accident.

11. Other Insurance. If the insured has other insurance against a loss covered by this policy the company shall not be liable under this policy for a greater proportion of such loss than the applicable limit of liability stated in the declarations bears to the total applicable limit of liability of all valid and collectible insurance against such loss.

12. Action Against Company. No action shall lie against the company unless, as a condition precedent thereto, the insured shall have fully complied with all the terms of this policy, nor until the amount of the insured's obligation to pay shall have been finally determined either by judgment against the insured after actual trial or by written agreement of the insured, the claimant and the company.

Any person or organization or the legal representative thereof who has secured such judgment or written agreement shall thereafter be entitled to recover under this policy to the extent of the insurance afforded by this policy. Nothing contained in this policy shall give any person or organization any right to join the company as a co-defendant in any action against the insured to determine the insured's liability.

Bankruptcy or insolvency of the insured or of the insured's estate shall not relieve the company of any of its obligations hereunder.

13. Subrogation. In the event of any payment under this policy, the company shall be subrogated to all the insured's rights of recovery therefor against any person or organization and the insured shall execut and deliver instruments and papers and do whatever else is necessary to secure such rights. The insured shall do nothing after loss to prejudice such rights.

14. Changes. Notice to any agent or knowledge possessed by any agent or by any other person shall not effect a waiver or a change in any part of this policy or estop the company from asserting any right under the terms of this policy; nor shall the terms of this policy be waived or changed, except by endorsement issued to form a part of this policy, signed by the President, a Vice President, Secretary, Assistant Secretary of the company, or a Registrar specially authorized; provided, however, changes may be made in the written [illegible] the declarations by a manager or general agent of the [illegible] when initialed by such manager or general agent.

[illegible]gnment. Assignment of interest under this policy shall not [illegible]nd the company until its consent is endorsed hereon; if, however, the named insured shall die or be adjudged bankrupt or insolvent within the policy period, this policy, unless canceled, shall, if written notice be given to the company within sixty days after the date of such death or adjudication, cover the named insured's legal representative as the named insured.

16. Cancelation. This policy may be canceled by the named insured by mailing to the company written notice stating when thereafter such cancelation shall be effective. This policy may be canceled by the company by mailing to the named insured at the address shown in this policy written notice stating when not less than five days thereafter such cancelation shall be effective. The mailing of notice as aforesaid shall be sufficient proof of notice and the effective date and hour of cancelation stated in the notice shall become the end of the policy period. Delivery of such written notice either by the named insured or by the company shall be equivalent to mailing.

If the named insured cancels, earned premium shall be computed in accordance with the customary short rate table and procedure. If the company cancels, earned premium shall be computed pro rata. Premium adjustment may be made at the time cancelation is effected and, if not then made, shall be made as soon as practicable after cancelation becomes effective. The company's check or the check of its representative mailed or delivered as aforesaid shall be a sufficient tender of any refund of premium due to the named insured.

17. Declarations. By acceptance of this policy the named insured agrees that the statements in the declarations are his agreements and representations, that this policy is issued in reliance upon the truth of such representations and that this policy embodies all agreements existing between himself and the company or any of its agents relating to this insurance.

In witness whereof, The Travelers Insurance Company has caused this policy, with respect to Coverage A and such other parts of the policy as are applicable thereto, to be signed by its President and a Secretary at Hartford, Connecticut, and countersigned on the declarations page by a duly authorized agent of the company.
