h. the type of asbestos;

i. the specific source of asbestos with dates;

j. the color, physical characteristic, and appearance of the product;

k. a full and precise description of the package in which the product was sold, including, but not limited to, type of package, size, color(s), and writings thereon;

l. all other names under which the product was sold;

m. the number and dates of each patent or patent application as to the product;

n. if the product continued to be produced after the deletion of asbestos, all reasons why the asbestos was deleted, the identity of the person who made the decision to delete the asbestos, and the date the product was first produced without the asbestos;

o. if the product is no longer produced, all reasons it was discontinued, the identity of the person who made the decision to discontinue the product, the brand name of the replacement product, and the date the replacement product first went into production;

p. a precise description of your identifying logo or initials and the dates of inclusion on the product;

q. state during what period of time such product has been associated with DEFENDANT;

r. identify any warning period of time such product has been associated with DEFENDANT;

s. identify any warning labels, inserts or other writings provided with such product and with every such printed warning, state what period of time it has or had accompanied the product, the exact wording of the warning, any amendments made to the wording, where the warning was located on each product or packaging, and on what asbestos products the warning appear(ed); and

t. geographic distribution range of each such product.

ANSWER:

1. Drum brake linings

a. Drum brake linings.

b. GM began manufacturing drum brake linings in 1939.

c. Not applicable.