TO SALES OFFICE MANAGERS:

We continue to carry in excess inventory heavy stocks of Ideal Dome Type Heaters and Ideal Scuttle-A-Day Heaters, all of which must be disposed of. This inventory has been called to your attention at various times over the past several months, however, we are not receiving orders in any volume.

We are listing below our current stock of these units and from the available quantities you will appreciate the necessity of securing immediate orders. Please give this problem your careful consideration, and if we can be of any assistance in your efforts to secure orders, do not hesitate to contact us.
