Final Squalus Lift To Be Made Tuesday

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Sept. 11. (UP) — Weather permitting, the final lift-tow of the sunken submarine Squalus and its cargo of 26 dead will be attempted tomorrow, navy salvagers said today. All four pontoons to be used in the final step were in position.

Firemen Overcome

(Continued from Page One) kitchen to shut off the refrigerator chemical supply. Burrows remained on the porch with Schmidt but both ventured toward the door. First Burrows inhaled the fumes and collapsed as he staggered outside. A few minutes later Schmidt was overcome. Patsell summoned the first aid squad and Schmidt revived quickly. Burrows regained consciousness after firemen had applied artificial respiration with the inhalator for a quarter of an hour. Schmidt did not require hospital treatment.

Mrs. Burton, who with her husband had resided in Burlingame since 1932, when they came here from San Francisco, died Saturday night at her home, 1584 Burlingame avenue, after a two-month illness. In addition to her husband, she is survived by a sister, Mrs. Martha H. Thompson of Bloomington, Neb.

Admiral Leahy Takes Reins in Porto Rico

SAN JUAN, P. R., Sept. 11. (UP) — Admiral William D. Leahy, former U. S. chief of naval operations, assumed the "government" of Puerto Rico today and pledged himself to the improvement of the opportunities and conditions of all the people of Puerto Rico. Shortly after his arrival aboard the steamship Comma, Leahy delivered his inaugural address from the capitol steps. He said he was not affiliated with any political groups here and would seek the counsel of leaders of all groups.
