Hey (b) (6)

I'm in the office on Sunday trying to catch up on email.

Nice to hear from you. I hope all is well.

Thanks for offering to help. All of the political personnel stuff is being handled by our White House Liaison, Lori Mashburn. I suggest that you send your resume directly to her, so that the right person is aware of your willingness to help. Her email is: Lori_Mashburn@ios.doi.gov.

I'll look forward to seeing you at some point in the near future.

Jim

(b) (6) I'd be delighted to send you my resume if it would be helpful. I'm a bit wiser, and know I can help move Interior's portfolio! I am confident we can help make Rural America Great Again!

I look forward to hearing from you Jim.

Warm regards,
