Subject: Law360 Press Request

Hello,

My name is Adam Lidgett and I'm a reporter with Law360. I'm doing a story on a Washington federal judge yesterday denying a bid from the U.S. EPA, NOAA and the Department of Commerce to dismiss the entirety of a suit from Northwest Environmental Advocates asserting that the agencies, in working with the State of Washington, failed to meet their obligations to protect Washington's coastal waters and the creatures that live in its waters from non-point source pollution. I was looking for a comment on that. I'm on deadline for about 12:45 p.m. EST today so if someone could get back to me by then that would be great. I can be reached here or at 646-783-7103. Thanks
