Subject: Conversation support on dicamba issues

Hello Mike,

I had a phone call with Nancy yesterday from a fairly noisy spot in an airport so our connection was not the best-- and on the topic of the evolving scenario of dicamba issues this year I think I understood her to say she was waiting on an attempted connection with one of your St Louis colleagues. I told Nancy that you could likely help facilitate any such conversations and that I'd send this email to extend that idea to you both!

Jay
