Hello Aurelia,

I appreciate your willingness to meet with us. I believe that the first step to finding solutions is talking through the logic of possible solutions.

We own property in Arizona near the wild burros.

I would like to reciprocate by saying that I would like to be of assistance to you. One possibility might be to assist in organizing opportunities for dialogue. I think the College of Agriculture at Purdue and the Arizona Natural Resource Users Law & Policy Center are terrific venues for such forums.

Please let me know if and when I can be helpful. I live about 15 minutes from the Indy airport.
