The party to whom such information is disclosed agrees to keep such information confidential for a period of five (5) years from the date of disclosure and not to disclose such information to others except its employees who have signed agreements obligating them to the disclosing party to the same extent their employer is obligated hereunder. The aforementioned obligations shall not apply when and to the extent such information was known to the disclosing party prior to receipt and is documented in records made prior to such disclosure or when, after and to the extent such information is generally available to the public, or is subsequently received by the party to whom disclosure was made in good faith from a third party.

10. During the term of this Agreement, Union Carbide agrees not to assert against Degussa and third parties to whom Degussa sells the aforementioned products any claim for infringement of a patent owned by Union Carbide by reason of Degussa's or such third parties' use of products sold hereunder.

Within one (1) month after such a disagreement, Union Carbide and Degussa will each designate one (1) arbitrator. These arbitrators shall name within thirty (30) days of their designation an additional arbitrator to act as chairman of the arbitration tribunal. Should the two (2) arbitrators fail to reach agreement on designating a third to act as chairman, or should either party fail to designate an arbitrator within the time designated above, the power to do so shall pass automatically to the President of the International Chamber of Commerce in Paris. Union Carbide and Degussa agree to accept decisions of the arbitration tribunal as final and binding and, to the extent lawful, to waive all rights to legal review of any such arbitration award.

Subject to mutually acceptable terms and conditions, the parties may agree to extend this Agreement from year to year thereafter. In addition, Union Carbide agrees to negotiate with Degussa concerning the possibility of Degussa's producing Union Carbide's asbestos based products for similar end uses under mutually acceptable terms and conditions.

15. Execution and Interpretation

(a) The provisions of this Agreement shall be construed, and the performance thereof governed, in accordance with the laws of the State of New York, United States of America.

(b) No change in, addition to, or waiver of the terms or conditions hereof shall be binding upon either party unless approved in writing by an authorized representative, and no modification shall be effected by the acknowledgment or acceptance of release or purchase order forms containing other or different terms or conditions.
