Mr. Donnell concluded his argument in the afternoon. He will be followed by the opening argument for the case, which will probably be made by Mr. McLachlan.

HILL FIGHT COMING.

DEPOSITIONS ARRIVING.

Every mail is bringing in depositions from the East to be used in the combat between Gertrude Driggs, counterfeiter's wife, and the riches family of Massachusetts for the fortune of Charles Hill, the old man who died here.

His case will be tried next month. Some of the depositions have been opened. One opened yesterday was that of William H. Sherry of Warren, Mass., who was a boyhood friend of Hill. In the deposition he gives dates which tend to support the dates in the mysterious diary kept in cypher by Hill.

RESCUER ARRIVES.

FOR MRS. BARNES.

Attorney W. H. Noble of Boston has made his appearance in this city to take up the cudgels for Mrs. Driggs, the alleged prisoner of her missing husband at Ocean Park. Noble wants to interview her. It may

The demurrer against the application for guardianship came up again before Judge Wilbur yesterday. It was not heard, as the attorneys wanted more time in which to find legal authorities.

COURT NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

INJUNCTION SUIT. The Los Angeles Pacific Railroad Company has brought an injunction against the Los Angeles, Ocean Park and Santa Monica Railroad, Abbot Kinney, G. A. Hart and Ida Hart, A. K. Frazier, G. M. Jones, H. R. Gage. Plaintiff claims that the personal defendants agreed to leave a strip of ten feet between the right of way of plaintiff and the ocean when the road was built, and now defendant corporation is seeking to get a right of way along that strip.
