

and error does have its advantages, at least if there is not too much error. Without gradual improvements pressures are built up. Extreme remedies may then be suggested. These may well seem satisfactory to only a few. Let us have evolution rather than drastic change.

All
With P.

Executive

SUMMARY OF OCCUPATIONAL DISEASE LEGISLATION—1956

Congress S.2280 (Public Law 803—84th Congress) effective July 26, 1956, increases benefits under Longshoremen's and Harborworker's Compensation Act—revises provisions as to special fund.

KentuckyS.B. 98 (Chapter 342, Laws of 1956) effective August 1, 1956, revises occupational disease provisions.

MarylandS.B. 85 (Chapter 94, Laws of 1956) effective June 1, 1956, lengthens statute of limitations in case medical care is furnished.

Massachusetts ..H.B. 3140 (Act No. 602, Laws of 1956) effective November 4, 1956, revises rehabilitation provisions.

New YorkS. Int. 1588 (Chapter 696, Laws of 1956) effective March 1, 1957, enacts volunteer firemen's benefit law.
Int. 3874 (Chapter 697, Laws of 1956) effective May 1, 1956, enacts amendments to volunteer firemen's benefit law.

Pennsylvania ...H.B. 1397 (Act 355, Acts of 1955) effective March 29, 1956, revises Occupational Diseases Act.
S.B. 235 (Act 488, Acts of 1955) effective September 1, 1956. Amends Occupational Disease Act with reference to coverage of tuberculosis.

Workmen's Compensation Study Commissions

Massachusetts ...H.B. 2923
Maryland(appointed by Governor)
MichiganS. Res. 43
New York(Moreland Commission)
VirginiaH.J.R. 91 (Public Officers)

Atomic Energy Study Commissions

Massachusetts ..S.B. 723, S.B. 791
New JerseyS.J.R. 11
New YorkA. Res. 206
OhioH.R. 215X
Rhode Island ...H.B. 937
South Carolina ..S.B. 531
VirginiaS.J.R. 10

It is singular be in Pittsburgh, as a striking example of civic improvement of the air pollution be the first to do. Those of us who by visible evidence do it. Moreover, for its efforts in and redeveloping areas as the

Thus it is preassigned me in a mination who saw the lot of all com

Air pollution, regarded as a ho efforts were directed Professor Thomas early as 1852. No stitute a nuisance alone affords in tion against the e upon the mere pl jacent property, pletely ineffectua modern industria numerable source source of injury persons who might appears obvious statutory law was

Early local

L. Cowan, Thomas A. No. 4, 627-28 (Sun