Kelsi,

The three people I sent to you last week are still planning to attend: Greg Akagi, Donna Sullivan and Amy Bickel. Do you have their contact info? They will need to have times and locations -- I had understood you would be coordinating plans directly with them. If you need me to do it, I can -- just let me know.

Also, have you had a chance yet to contact Sara Wyant from Agri-Pulse? She has contacted us several times but we have deferred to your office.

Good morning! Wanted to check in and see what media has confirmed for tomorrow?

Also, I'd like to go ahead and get some quotes from your bosses for our follow up press release. About our visit to Kansas to hear from stakeholders, etc.

Thank you!
Kelsi

From a Farm Bureau perspective we can get two distinct sets of producers at each stop. More so for Garnett I need to know space limitations.
